About Program

Program Objective

To prepare leaders in the profession of physical therapy that can serve as change agents in the profession, to address health issues through the life span, negotiate/advocate services for clients, educate clients and students, consult with organizations, and contribute to the profession through research.

Target Applicant

This program is for physical therapists interested in obtaining skills needed for academic/research careers.

Delivery

The distance hybrid program allows students to participate from anywhere in the world. Students come to our Fort Lauderdale campus twice a year, during winter and fall semesters. There is no on-campus time during the summer semester.
